20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

Congress passed legislation to create the Women's Suffrage Centennial Commission Act, a bill, "to ensure a suitable observance of the centennial of the passage and ratification of the 19th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States providing for women's suffrage."

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Commission shall be composed of 14 members as designated in its enabling statute, Pub. L. 115-31 Appendix C. a) Two members shall be appointed by the President; b) Two members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives; c) Two members shall be appointed by the minority leader of the House of Representatives; d) Two members shall be appointed by the majority leader of the Senate; e) Two members shall be appointed by the minority leader of the Senate; f) One member shall be the Librarian of Congress, or the designee of the Librarian; g) One member shall be the Archivist of the United States, or the designee of the Archivist; h) One member shall be the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, or the designee of the Secretary; and i) One member shall be the Director of the National Park Service, or the designee of the Director.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

At the call of the Chair (in consultation with the DFO), the Commission will meet at least once every 6 months.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

As authorized by the Act, the Commission will provide advice on activities relating to the commemoration of the passage and ratification of the 19th Amendment, and plan activities and develop recommendations for Congress and the President for commemorating the centennial. The Commission also is authorized to award grants to States and the District of Columbia to support programs and activities related to commemorating the centennial.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

All meetings are open to the public.
